NATIONAL WOMEN'S COUNCIL OF REALTORS® INSTALLS 2022 LEADERSHIP

CHICAGO (November 16, 2021) – Sylvia Seabolt was installed as 2022 president of the National Women's Council of Realtors® during the National Conference, held in conjunction with the Realtors® Conference & Expo in San Diego, CA.

Seabolt was Women's Council of Realtors® 2021 president-elect, 2020 first vice president, and 2019 Treasurer. President of The Dream Connectors Real Estate group in Rowlett, TX, Seabolt specializes in residential real estate in the Dallas Metroplex and North Texas alongside her mom, Gale, who is also a Realtor® and proud Women's Council member and an inspiration for Seabolt to join the organization over twenty years ago. She has been a Realtor® for over 20 years and has chaired numerous committees and served in various positions on both the local and State Level of Women's Council of REALTORS®, Lake Cities Association of REALTORS®, Collin County Association of Realtors®, MetroTex Association of REALTORS® and North Texas Young Professionals Network.

Chris Pelkola Lee is the 2022 Women's Council of Realtors® president-elect. He has been a Realtor® for 15 years and is broker-owner of SimPLee Home in Idaho Falls, ID. She has also served in volunteer positions elsewhere within the industry including as President of her local REALTOR® association and on various committees for Idaho REALTORS®, including as the NAR state representative for the Broker Involvement Committee. Chris was recognized as the 2018 Realtor® of the Year at the Greater Idaho Falls Association of REALTORS® and is a graduate of Idaho Realtors® Leadership Academy.

Kerri Hartnett is Women's Council of Realtors® 2022 first vice president. A third-generation Realtor®, Hartnett has over 15 years of personal real estate experience where she has been a consistent top producing REALTOR since 2004. She served as the Portland Metropolitan Association of Realtors® President in 2017 and was a political action committee Trustee Chair, and was honored as PMAR's REALTOR of the Year in 2018. She serves the Oregon Association of Realtors® as a State Director, a member of the ORPAC Trustees and will be the 2020-2021 Political Affairs Vice-Chair. Kerri is also a member of the National Association of REALTORS® RPAC Major Investor Council and RPAC Fundraising Trustees. Hartnett resides in Astoria,

Oregon and is Broker/owner of Premiere Property Group, LLC, serving metropolitan Portland, coastal Oregon and beyond.

Tammy Noll is Women's Council of Realtors® 2022 treasurer. A Realtor® for more than 11 years, she is the Business Development Director for the Southside of Atlanta with Better Homes and Gardens Metro Brokers Real Estate. She was "Realtor® of the Year" for the Metro South Association of Realtors® and was a member of the NAR Diversity Committee from 2019-2021.
