A home state and/or region may Endorse a Women's Council member in accordance with Section H (1).

D. APPLICATION PROCESS

1. Eligibility for Application

If an individual is serving in any of the following positions, State President, State President-Elect, State First Vice President, State Treasurer, District Vice President, State Liaison or National Liaison, they are ineligible from serving in both a National and State position concurrently.

Because of the time of elections and when newly elected officers take office the overlap of "elects" for onboarding process is acceptable if serving in a National and State position concurrently.

2. Timeframe for Application:

A Women's Council REALTOR® member may file an Application for National Women's Council Elected Office between March 1 through May 31 of the year prior to the Election Year. Campaigning is not allowed during this timeframe.

3. Emergency Application Process:

If after the submission period no applications were received or no Potential Candidates were deemed eligible for a particular Elected Office, then within seven (7) days, or as soon as practical, the CCRC will open an application period for thirty (30) days during which time Women’s Council REALTOR® members may file an application for that Elected Office. The Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee will release a list of the Eligible Candidates by the earliest date practical following the close of the emergency application period, but in no event earlier than the Notification Date.

E. Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee

- n) Eight (8) members of the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee will establish a Quorum. The Chair or Immediate Past Chair must be present to establish a quorum.

F. POTENTIAL CANDIDATE REVIEW PROCESS

BACKGROUND CHECKS AND PROFESSIONAL DUE DILIGENCE

The Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee will perform professional due diligence and review all timely-filed complete applications for Elected Office and will require background checks on each Potential Candidate. Applications must include a Letter of Good Standing from all Local Associations Potential Candidate has membership including Potential Candidate’s State Association. Said Letter of Good Standing is to be signed by a person of authority within the respective Association. Incomplete/Partial applications will not be reviewed. The Women’s Council will hire a professional organization to conduct the appropriate background checks. (Women’s Council – National will cover the cost to conduct the background checks).

1. Background Checks and Professional Due Diligence

Potential Candidates are required to provide detailed information regarding any prior or pending legal and regulatory matters against the Potential Candidate or any company of which the Potential Candidate is an owner, principal, partner, or corporate officer in any of the following categories:

- Pending federal, state and county litigation and/or regulatory action
- Final judgments
- Disciplinary actions
- Pending Ethics Violations

2. Candidate Application Review:

The results of the Background Check and Professional Due Diligence process will be submitted to National Women’s Council CEO for review. Should items of material issue be revealed by the Potential Candidate, the Professional Due Diligence process and/or the background check, said information will be submitted to the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee. Example of issues that may be considered material include, but are not limited to, the following:

- REALTOR® Code of Ethics violations resulting in the termination or suspension of membership
- Failure to comply with Women’s Council campaign and election rules
- All criminal convictions, excluding traffic violations (however driving under the influence may be considered a material issue)
- Regulatory enforcement actions (personal or business) where a violation was found
- Pending regulatory investigations (personal or business)
- Pending litigation (personal or business)
- Judgments (personal or business)
- Social Media

Any reports/violations will be provided to the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee chair for review.

Convictions, regulatory investigations, pending litigation, judgments, facts, or circumstances that could reasonably represent a source of liability, or conflict with Women's Council of Realtors® policies could affect the eligibility of the Candidate.

If after reviewing the Background Check and Professional Due Diligence process, the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee determines whether there are any material issues that may prevent a Potential Candidate from being deemed an Eligible Candidate, the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair will promptly disclose such material issue(s) to the Potential Candidate. The Potential Candidate will then be provided thirty (30) days to correct any inaccurate information or offer any mitigating information relevant to such issue(s). In addition, the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee may, in its discretion, request a personal interview with the Potential Candidate. Upon completion of the Potential Candidate review, the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee will release the list of Eligible Candidates to the membership of Women's Council on the Notification Date (see page 4 Important Dates and Timeframes).

G. POTENTIAL CANDIDATE APPEAL PROCESS

1. Potential Candidate Appeal Process:

- a) Within ten (10) days of receipt of the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee determination of a Potential Candidate's ineligibility to campaign for Elected Office, a Potential Candidate may file a written appeal with the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair.
- b) The Potential Candidate's appeal must include all of the following information:
 - Basis for Potential Candidate's appeal
 - Supporting documentation for the Potential Candidate's basis for appeal
 - Whether the Potential Candidate requests an opportunity to make their appeal in person
- c) Within ten (10) days of receipt of the written appeal, the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair will forward a copy of the Potential Candidate's appeal and supporting materials to the full Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee for its review.
- d) If the Potential Candidate requests a hearing, a virtual hearing will be set, within five (5) days of receipt of the appeal, the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair will notify the Potential Candidate of the date of the appeal hearing.
- e) A majority of the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee must be present in order to conduct an appeal hearing.
- f) In order to prevail on appeal, a Potential Candidate must receive a 2/3 affirmative vote from the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee members voting at the appeal hearing.
- g) Within five (5) days of the date of the appeal hearing, but in no event earlier than the Notification Date of August 1st, the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair shall notify the Potential Candidate of the decision of the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee in writing.
- h) The decision of Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee on the Potential Candidate's appeal is final.

- q) While on a National Women's Council business virtual meeting/event, customized backgrounds, virtual banners, candidate campaign materials or statements are prohibited. In addition, names must be correctly displayed without any campaign reference.

The intent of these policies is not to disrupt in person or virtual meetings.

L. CAMPAIGN FINANCIAL SUPPORT (OPTIONAL)

Note, national does not require that you finance a campaign in any fashion whatsoever. Should you decide to seek financial support, beginning on Notification date of the year prior to the Election Year, an Eligible Candidate may begin accepting commitments of, and receiving campaign financial support from any individual, institution, Women's Council Region, Women's Council State or Local Network. Candidates are advised to contact a tax advisor regarding handling and reporting of any financial support.

M. CAMPAIGN RULE VIOLATION COMPLAINT PROCESS, SANCTIONS AND APPEAL PROCESS

Any Women's Council member may file a written complaint with the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair, and the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee may initiate a complaint, for a suspected campaign violation.

If a Women's Council member, Potential Candidate, or Eligible Candidate believes that a campaign rule violation has occurred, such individual is encouraged to file a written complaint with the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair pursuant to the procedure outlined below.

1. Process for Submitting a Complaint:

- a) Written complaints must be submitted on the Women's Council complaint form with the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair and copied to Women's Council CEO. Forms can be obtained by contacting the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair and/or Women's Council CEO.
- b) All complaints must contain the name of the complainant, the date the complaint was submitted, and a summary of the allegations (photos & screen shots can be used to support complaint). Anonymous complaints will not be accepted.
- c) The Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair, in consultation with Women's Council CEO or designated staff will review the complaint to determine whether the complaint sufficiently alleges that a campaign violation may have occurred. If it does, then a group consisting of the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair and one (1) member of the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee (selected by the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair and Women's Council CEO or designated staff) will contact the respondent directly and attempt to resolve the matter in a mutually agreeable manner, which may include the imposition of a sanction. If the matter is not resolved, the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair, will assemble a five (5) member panel consisting of members of the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee and the chair, to further investigate and consider the matter.

- d) If a panel is assembled, the panel may request the complainant and/or respondent to provide additional information or appear before the panel in person or virtually. The panel is bound by the rules of evidence and may consider any evidence to determine whether a campaign violation has occurred.
- e) The resolution of the matter must be agreed upon by a majority vote of the panel.
- f) The Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair, in consultation with Women's Council CEO or designated staff will document the resolution of the matter and communicate such resolution to respondent. The complainant will be notified as to whether or not a violation occurred and that any sanctions/actions are confidential to the respondent.
- g) If the respondent wishes to appeal the sanction or the panel's decision for any reason, an appeal may be filed with the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair. Complainants have no appeal right.

2. Sanctions:

If a campaign violation is deemed to have been committed, the panel has the discretion to impose any one or more of the following sanctions:

- a) Confidential written warning to the candidate, with a copy to the candidate's campaign manager (if applicable).
- b) Confidential cease and desist letter and/or letter of censure to the candidate, with a copy to the candidate's campaign manager (if applicable).
- c) Letter of censure delivered to the Women's Council voting delegates (Bylaws Article X, Section 2B).
- d) Prohibited from running for any Women's Council Elected Office during the current and immediately following election cycle.

3. Appeal Process:

- a) Within five (5) business days of the respondent's receipt of notice of the panel's decision, respondent may file a written appeal, which must include information supporting the basis of the appeal.
- b) Within three (3) business days of receiving the candidate's appeal, the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair will notify appellant of the date and time for the hearing.
- c) Appellant has the right to present their appeal to the full Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee. Members of the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee who served as part of the original review panel are excluded from the appeal, except that the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair shall preside over the proceeding, but not vote. Appellant will have thirty (30) minutes to present any relevant evidence to the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee.
- d) The Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee will review the complaint anew, affording no deference to the panel's previous decision.
- e) Within five (5) days of the appeal hearing, the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair will notify the appellant of the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee decision on the appeal.
- f) The decision of the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee is final.

4. Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Guidelines:

Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee members, National Liaisons and/or National Liaisons-Elect are prohibited from endorsing candidates for National Women's Council Elected Office. Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee members must adhere to the following guidelines:

- a) May not introduce or speak on behalf of a candidate or participate in photo opportunities with candidates.
- b) If a Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee member attends a campaign event, then he or she should attempt to attend campaign events of all candidates to avoid any appearance of favoritism.
- c) May not wear or distribute campaign-related items.

- d) May view information on candidates' websites and social media platforms, but must refrain from taking any action that is, or could be construed as an Endorsement. For example, "liking" or "following" a candidate's campaign social media page is prohibited.
- e) May not serve on a candidate's campaign team.
- f) Must abstain from voting on any candidate Endorsement in the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee member's home state or region. However, Regions can endorse.

If it comes to the attention of the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair that an Eligible Candidate or Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee member has violated the Campaign Endorsement Policies, the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair, in consultation with the committee and Women's Council CEO or designated staff, will address the alleged violation and determine an appropriate resolution of the violation.

If it comes to the attention of the Women's Council CEO, a National Officer or a Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee member that the Candidate Credentialing and Campaign Rules Committee Chair has violated the Campaign Endorsement Policies, the National President, in consultation with the Women's Council CEO or designated staff, will address the alleged violation and determine an appropriate resolution of the violation.

N. ELECTION AND INSTALLATION OF ELECTED OFFICERS

1. Women's Council Midyear Election Meeting:

Per the Bylaws, Election of officers shall be by viva voce or roll call vote, or written or electronic ballot as per rules of the day. A majority vote shall elect an officer. In the event that no candidate on the ballot for a particular office receives a majority vote, the two candidates receiving the greatest number of votes cast shall remain on the ballot and a run-off election shall be held between those two candidates. The candidate receiving the majority of votes cast in the run-off election shall be declared the winner.
