Candidate for National Liaison

ABOUT ME

Ashley Almeida is a member of the Jennifer Mello Team of The Mello Group. She has been a licensed Realtor® in Rhode Island and Massachusetts since 2016. In addition to bringing her education with a Master's in Business Administration, she has a strong passion for giving back to our industry through her various leadership endeavors.

She is the Local President for the Women's Council of Realtors® Rhode Island and was their 2017 member of the year. She is a graduate of the Women's Council Leadership Institute as well as a PMN Designee. She has served in various positions at her local network, served as a conference ambassador and was appointed as the Women's Council representative to the NAR Professional Standards Committee.

She serves as a Director for the Rhode Island Association of Realtors® on their governing board, Global Business Committee and Troop Support Committee. She received the honor of Realtor® of the Year from the Greater Providence Board of Realtors® in 2023 and currently sits as their President. She is also a member of NAHREP Providence Chapter and the Young Professionals Network. She is always seeking ways to educate and grow through all leadership opportunities.

In addition to her passion for real estate, she is blessed to be a mom to Layla and Liam with her fiancée Greg. She's PTO President and active in her church community. She frequents Starbucks, loves to read, travel, sip some pumpkin spice and enjoy her favorite holiday- Halloween! She's always looking to meet more industry professionals and to continue to give back however she can.
