

SHAUNA HUISMAN

Candidate for National Liaison

ABOUT ME

Shauna Huisman is a dedicated REALTOR® with Realty ONE Group, proudly serving clients across Phoenix and Scottsdale, Arizona. She is also an Associate Broker with Realty ONE Group Concierge serving the markets of Albuquerque and Santa Fe, New Mexico. Known for her personalized approach and professional insight, she delivers a unique real estate experience grounded in more than 25 years of leadership in sales, marketing, and education within the Healthcare Technology and corporate sectors. Shauna transitioned into real estate in 2016, blending her strategic mindset with a deep commitment to client care. She is a proud graduate of the University of California, Chico.

Passionate about mentorship and professional growth, Shauna is a respected voice in the real estate community. She served as the 2022 President and 2023 State Liaison for the Women's Council of REALTORS® Arizona and currently holds a national leadership role on the National Women's Council Executive Committee. She is deeply committed to empowering women in their careers and fostering leadership across the industry.

Shauna's dedication to advocacy is reflected in her work with Arizona REALTORS®. She serves as the 2025 Chair of the Equity, Diversity & Inclusion Committee and is a member of the Professional & Business Development Committee. As a proud Golden R President's Circle investor with the REALTOR® Party (RPAC), she champions policies that protect homeownership rights and strengthen communities.

At the heart of everything she does is family—her greatest inspiration and “why.” A passionate traveler, Shauna, has lived overseas and visited more than 30 countries, bringing a global perspective and open-mindedness to her work. In her downtime, she enjoys hiking, being outdoors, and spending time with her beloved dogs.

Shauna's blend of experience, leadership, and heart makes her a trusted advocate and partner for clients and colleagues alike.
