Linda Lizzio is celebrating her 15th year in residential real estate. She recently joined TTR Sotheby's International Realty as a Vice President and is a licensed Associate Broker in DE, DC, MD, and VA. Known by clients and colleagues for her energy, focus, fairness, and heart, Linda has consistently built a reputation for responsiveness, attention to detail, and exceptional personal service. She credits her father for inspiring her passion for real estate and instilling values of perseverance, honesty, and integrity. Linda graduated from the Robert H. Smith School of Business at the University of Maryland.

Before real estate, Linda spent a decade in the fashion industry as one of three District Directors for Fashion Group International, overseeing the Midwest and Northeast regions. She worked with incoming Presidents to strengthen their programming, grow membership, and build effective leadership teams. That role helped her discover her passion for mentoring others and taught her the authentic leadership skills required to lead as a volunteer.

Since joining the Women's Council in 2013, Linda has consistently led with purpose. As the 2023 Local President of Sussex County, Delaware, she worked together with her Governing Board and achieved a 40% increase in membership! Linda is a graduate of the 2024 National Women's Council Leadership Institute, served on the 2025 National Organizational Sustainability Task Force, and serves on the 2026 and 2025 National Faculty.

Linda remains committed to serving both the real estate industry and her local community. She is Chair of the Global Business Advisory Committee for the Greater Capital Area Association of REALTORS®, a dedicated RPAC Major Investor, and serves on her HOA's board.

Linda is a lifelong learner and embraces professional development. She has earned the PMN, ABR, AHWD, CRS, CIPS, GRI, GREEN, RENE, and RSPS designations. In 2025, Linda was awarded 1.5% Top Individual Agent Nationwide by Real Trends Verified/WSJ.

Married and the proud mom of two young adults and a new grandbaby, Linda cherishes family time, travel, pickleball, and her beloved Westies.
