

KIM SITTON

CANDIDATE FOR NATIONAL PRESIDENT ELECT

Kim Sitton is a respected real estate professional, business leader, and dedicated advocate for leadership development within the Women’s Council of REALTORS. With a successful career built on consistency, strategic growth, and a commitment to excellence, she has established herself as a trusted resource for both clients and colleagues in her market.

Throughout her career, Kim has demonstrated a strong ability to build and scale a sustainable real estate business, with a focus on long-term relationships, professionalism, and results. Her business success is complemented by her passion for education—both in her own development and in creating opportunities for others to grow and succeed in an ever-evolving industry.

Kim has held multiple leadership roles within the Women’s Council, where she has been instrumental in strengthening member engagement, supporting leadership development, and fostering collaboration across local and state networks. Known for her strategic mindset and solutions-oriented approach, she brings clarity, accountability, and forward-thinking leadership to every role she serves.

In addition to her Council involvement, Kim is recognized within her brokerage and professional community for her leadership, mentorship, and commitment to elevating industry standards. She is deeply invested in developing future leaders and believes that strong organizations are built through intentional growth, education, and connection.

Her contributions have earned her recognition among her peers as a leader who not only achieves results but also inspires others to step into their full potential. Whether through business, leadership, or service, Kim remains focused on creating meaningful impact and shaping the future of real estate.
